

Take My Life and Let It Be

By: Francis Havergal

Take my life, and let it be Consecrated, Lord, to Thee;
Take my moments and my days, Let them flow in ceaseless praise.

Take my hands, and let them move At the impulse of Thy love;
Take my feet and let them be Swift and beautiful for Thee.

Take my voice, and let me sing Always, only, for my King;
Take my lips, and let them be Filled with messages from Thee.

Take my silver and my gold; Not a mite would I withhold;
Take my intellect, and use Every power as Thou shalt choose.

Take my will, and make it Thine; It shall be no longer mine.
Take my heart; it is Thine own; It shall be Thy royal throne.

Take my love; my Lord, I pour At Thy feet its treasure store.
Take myself, and I will be Ever, only, all for Thee.

Notes:

Hymn # 469 from Christian Worship

Author: Francis Havergal

Tune: Patmos

This simple hymn with its easy tune is a prayer to God that he might use everything in our lives in service to him. The verses are short and simple enough to use more than one over the course of the month.

We'll sing this hymn in worship on Sunday, June 30th. Until then, consider using it as a bedtime or after-dinner hymn with your family. The music you'll find online includes a one verse introduction and all six verses of the hymn.
